

HOUDINI IN EARLY CINEMA

John Cox

July 14 2019 | 2:00 PM - 4:00 PM
Lecture on Harry Houdini

John Cox has studied the life of Harry Houdini for over 40 years. He consults on Houdini projects for radio, television, stage and film, and writes a popular blog devoted to the magician, WILD ABOUT HARRY (wildabouthoudini.com). A graduate of the University of Southern California School of Cinematic Arts, John has written extensively for film and television. He's also a member of the world famous Magic Castle in Hollywood. John lives in Los Angeles where he writes his blog and is currently working on a definitive chronology of Houdini's life.

