

ZINE WORKSHOP LEADER

Isadora
Pennington

Jan 20 2019 | 1:00 PM - 3:00 PM
Zine Making Workshop

Isadora Pennington is an artist, photographer, writer, and designer living in Atlanta, GA. Since graduating from GSU with a BA in Studio Art in 2011, she has worked as a graphic designer for 6 local newspapers, contributed stories and photos to numerous local and national publications, and has displayed her zines at the Atlanta Zine Fest on several occasions.

Until recently Isadora was a full-time freelance photojournalist and art teacher, leading courses for kids from kindergarten through high school and covering arts including drawing, painting, sculpture, costume design, graphic design, journalism, and zine-making at the High Museum of Art, the Woodruff Arts Center, Treehouse Kid & Craft, The New School, and Wonderroot.

With an undying love for print, Isadora knows how to combine stories and writing with imagery and collate that using beautiful design to create a beautiful finished print product, whether it be in small batches like a zine or on a larger scale publications such as newspapers and magazines.

